Meeting of the City Council—$50,000 Appropriated to Purchase Coal.

Both boards of the Council were in session last night. In the lower board a resolution was offered authorizing the Mayor to borrow $100,000 for the purchase of fuel, but as there were not two-thirds present the resolution was laid upon the table, to be taken up at the next meeting of the Council. A resolution was also adopted to enforce the ordinance authorizing the Council to purchase coal.

The resolution passed at the last meeting in regard to coal cars was vetoed by the Mayor, and Councilman Tucker gave notice that at the next meeting he would offer an ordinance to the same purpose.

In the Board of Aldermen the Mayor announced that he had received from the Jeffersonville Railroad Company fifty of the citizens' bonds of $1,000 each, for which he had delivered to said company 500 shares of the stock of said railroad, held by the city. He also announced to that board that he had purchased $25,000 worth of the citizens' bonds at 95 cents on the dollar, thus saving to the city the interest on said bonds, and five per cent. It will be remembered that some time since the Council granted a contract to a company to build a street railroad out First street, but the building of a military road out that street prevented the same. A petition was sent to the Legislature to grant to the company the right to build, with the consent of the city, a street railroad through any street of the city. The Mayor protested against this, and the Council passed a resolution requesting the Legislature not to pass such an act.

Mr. Osborne, in the Board of Aldermen, offered a resolution authorizing the Mayor to purchase $50,000 worth of coal. Several amendments were offered to the resolution, all of which were objected to. The question then came up on the passage of the resolution, and it was passed by a vote of seven to one—J. A. Brown, of the Seventh ward, being the only one who voted in the negative.

A resolution was passed to repay and restore the north side of Main street, between Third and Fourth, and also to allow the construction further time to repair Sixth street, between Main and the river.

The Council then adjourned, to meet again on Wednesday night, December 23d.

LADIES FAIR FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE POOR.—The Ladies Fair for the benefit of the poor will commence at Masonic Temple on Monday evening, and, judging from the extensive arrangements which are being made by the ladies, we have no doubt but that it will be the largest, most magnificent and successful fair ever held in the city. The entire proceeds of the fair will be appropri- ated to relieve the wants of the suffering poor in our midst, and all who are in want will share alike its proceeds. The object is a noble one, and we hope that the labors of the ladies of our city will be crowned with suc- cess. We anticipate that the hall will be crowded on Monday night, and all who at- tend will not only enjoy themselves, but will have the satisfaction of knowing that they have contributed to the wants of suffer- ing humanity.

PRESENTATION SWORD.—The non-commissioned officers and privates of the Eighty-first regiment Indiana volunteers yesterday purchased of Captain J. J. Hirschbuhl a mag- nificent sword, to be presented to Major James E. Calloway, of the Twenty-first reg- iment Illinois volunteers, for his bravery and skill in commanding their regiment in the battle of Chickamauga. The sword can be seen for a few days at the store of Captain Hirschbuhl on Main street, near Third.

ARREST.—Yesterday a man by the name of Dickens was arrested by the military au- thorities as being concerned in the late frauds against the government brought to light in this city. His case was commenced yesterday before the military commission now in session in this city. He will be confined in the mili- tary prison until a thorough investigation of his case is had. We understand that other parties implicated in these frauds will also be arrested.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Yesterday a driver of a government train, while driving along the wharf with his wagon loaded with corn, fell from the wagon between the wheels, and it seemed evident to every one that he would cer- tainly be crushed to death, but by a quick mo- tion he jumped from between the wheels in time to save his passing over his body. His escape from death was truly miraculous.

THE WEATHER.—During the week the weather has been very changeable, and yester- day was very warm for this season. About dark a fine misty rain set in, which made it very disagreeable out of doors. The weather prophets say that the present winter will be the most severe ever known in this latitude since 1859.

NEW MUSIC.—D. P. Farley has just pub- lished a new piece of music entitled "Stein- er Tansum Grand March," which is com- posed by Mrs. E. O. Boyle, and dedicated to Captain J. M. Shirley, President of the Mail Company.

A Confederate soldier, who pretends to be a deserter from the rebel army, was yester- day arrested and sent to the military prison, where he will be confined until his case can be investigated.

See advertisement of Dr. McClellan, in another column.

ROBBERY.—Our city at present is infested with highway robbers, thieves, burglars and every grade of villains known to the law, who have donned the uniform of the soldier to carry out their nefarious designs and more completely escape detection. A large number of these villains are those who have been driven from cities below here, and others are those who left the rebel army, came here as deserters and enlisted in some of the new regiments now forming. In addition to the many outrages already announced, we have to add another. At a late hour Wednesday night some one entered the residence of Mr.
Murphy, on Chestnut street, between Clay and Shelby, through a back window, with the intention of robbing the house. Mr. Murphy was aroused by the villain's step, and reaching his revolver, he shot at the thief, who jumped out the window through which he entered and made his escape.

We call especial attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railroad. It will be seen that on and after the 14th inst. there will be three daily trains (Sundays excepted), leaving New Albany for all the important cities West, North and East. The 9 o'clock A. M. train for St. Louis, Cairo and Evansville; the 2:30 P. M. train for Chicago, Terre Haute, and all points in Central Illinois, for Toledo, Cleveland, Michigan City and Detroit; and the 8:40 P. M. train for St. Louis, which makes immediate connection with the Eastern bound train on the Ohio and Mississippi railroads for Cincinnati and all Eastern cities. The management of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railroad is such as to command the confidence of the traveling public, and insure its full share of patronage.

POCKET PICKED.—On Wednesday night John White had his pocket picked of $14 by a soldier named John McCard. The two went into a saloon in the upper portion of the city, where McCard asked White to give him enough money to treat. White pulled out his pocket-book and handed McCard a dollar-bill, and placed his pocket-book back, containing the balance of his money ($14) in his vest pocket, and started to leave the house.
McCard called him aside, and in a friendly way, placed his arm around his waist and began a conversation, during which he asked White's pocket-book. McCard was arrested and taken before the military authorities, who turned him over to the civil authorities, and he will have a hearing before Judge Johnston this morning.

HOSPITAL NO. 9, CORNER WENZEL AND MARKET.—We have lately had occasion to frequently visit this hospital, and we must say that we were more than pleased with the management of it and the care taken of the sick and wounded that are placed there. In fact they receive all the attention that they or their friends could wish. The establishment is in charge of Dr. Maccham, and among his assistants are Mr. and Mrs. Adam Bart, of Lafayette, Ind., both of whom have, since the rebellion broke out, devoted their whole time and energy in watching by the side of our sick and wounded, for which they have received the blessings of many that have died, and will ever be gratefully remembered by those who have survived.

ANOTHER ROBBERY.—On Tuesday night a man by the name of Robinson was invaded into a house in the alley in the rear of the fall and robbed of fifty-five dollars and a fine overcoat. Officers McGuire, Horan, Joel Lambourne and Thomas Antie, on the trail of the party who committed the robbery, and at the late hour on Wednesday night they succeeded in arresting three persons, named Mollie Feany, Chris. Grimes and Margaret Smith, who assisted in robbing Robinson. At the time they were arrested part of the stolen property was found in their possession. They were presented before Judge Johnston yesterday this morning, when their case was continued until to-day.

PRISONERS CAPTURED AT CHATTANOOGA.— The rebels continue to assert that they lost but three thousand prisoners in the late battle at Chattanooga. Since the fight four thousand and ten privates and two hundred and nine officers captured in that fight have arrived in this city, and been sent forward to the different prisons in the North. In addition to this, there is a large number of prisoners captured in that fight confined in Nashville, who will be forwarded to this place in the course of a few days.

INQUEST NO. 161.—Held December 11, 1863, at the residence of Mr. Wm. A. Martin, on the Preston street road, seven and a half miles from Louisville, on the body of Henry, aged 64 years, slave of said Martin. Verdict—Came to his death at the place above cited, on the 8th of December, 1863, from a pistol-shot wound in the head, at the hands of Chas. H. Emerson, and that the shooting was unintentional on the part of Emerson.

Three soldiers were before Col. Hanson yesterday charged with stealing six boxes which were claimed by one Rader. An investigation of the case showed that the boxes, with the exception of one, belonged to the government hospital, and the soldiers were discharged. The one which was not proved to belong to the government hospital was delivered over to Rader, although there was no positive proof that it was his property.

We refer our readers to the advertisement of Jay Cooke, subscription agent of the United States five-twenty bonds. We have on several other occasions explained the nature of these bonds, and spoken of them as an investment. The advertisement of Mr.
Cooke so fully explains the nature of the bonds that we best subserve the interests of our readers by directing them to a careful perusal of the advertisement.

ROCKLESS SHOOTING.—We are informed that on Wednesday night at an early hour, when the streets were full of persons, two soldiers coming out Sixth street had in their charge a deserter, who broke away, and the guard immediately fired upon him, the ball from one of the muskets barely missing a citizen who was passing along at the time.

Mr. Joseph Wolf, Jr., advertises a large selection of toys for the holidays, and keeps constantly on hand all kinds of fancy cakes and confectioneries. Those who wish a supply of things in his line will call at his store, Market, between Floyd and Preston streets.

The trial of Captain Morris, of the Eleventh Kentucky cavalry, charged with the murder of Mr. Johnson, near Shelbyville, will be commenced on Saturday, before the court martial, in our city.

Messrs. Hyatt, Smith & Co., coal dealers, have opened an office at No. 216 Main street, between Second and Third. They are well-known dealers, and keep the best coal in the market.

The civil term of the Jefferson County Circuit Court closes on Saturday, when the court for a new trial in the case of James Harris will be argued.

WIFE SEDUCTION.—THE SEDUCER SEES—His RECOVERED AND ELVES WITH THE WOMAN.
One of those peculiar cases of domestic intellect and crime which of late have become so common, has just been brought to light, the particulars of which are about as follows: Last summer an extensive cattle dealer by the name of McCoy made the acquaintance of a family living in Orange county, Indiana, named Reeds, and by his winning manner he succeeded in seducing the wife of James Reeds, who was absent at Memphis at the time on business. When Reeds returned to his home he learned the full particulars of affair, and he attempted to kill the seducer of his wife and the destroyer of his happiness.
He started in search of him who had so foully wronged him, and meeting McCoy one day he shot him. McCoy was well carried for, and in a short time recovered from his wounds, and was again soon able to go about.
As soon as he was able to travel he visited the house of Reeds, during his absence, and eloped with Mrs. Reeds. The guilty pair arrived at New Albany last Monday night, and on last Tuesday they took passage on the Big Gray Eagle for some point down the river.

Reeds, when he returned home, found that his wife had eloped with McCoy, and having the direction, he started after them, and on Thursday evening he reached New Albany and started to cross on the ferryboat to Portland, where the Big Gray Eagle was lying. But just before the ferryboat left New Albany he was arrested on a writ forwarded from Orange county to Deputy Sheriff Jones, and he was thus prevented from confronting the wretched wife and her paramour in sin.
Reeds had upon his person several articles, heavily loaded, and $4,875 in Confederate scrip, which caused him to be turned over to Major Fry commanding the post of New Albany, and he is now confined in the military prison of that city. Reeds declares his intention to follow the destroyer of his happiness to the end of the world but that he will have his life.

NEWS FROM JOHN MORGAN.—The Cincinnati Commercial has what it deems reliable information that the rebel guerrilla chief John Morgan, with his stock of goods, sold by himself, passed through Louisville, Harrison county, Kentucky, on Tuesday, making for the South as fast as possible. There is a report in this city that the redoubtable John had succeeded in crossing the Cumberland river near Parkville, Kentucky. We do not touch for either of the reports.

We learn that Lieut. Bratton, formerly of the Ninth Kentucky cavalry, has been authorized to organize a company for the Second regiment of Kentucky heavy artillery. Lieutenant Bratton is well known as an officer and a gentleman of sterling ability, and we hope that his company may soon be filled.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—This evening is set apart for the benefit of Mr. Edwin Adams, beyond a doubt the best tragedian that has appeared in this city for many years. Those who have witnessed his performance of Hamlet, Macbeth, Romeo, &c., know his pre-eminence in these characters, and leave the theatre elevated to ecstasy at his incomparable personations. Independent of his just claim as a brilliant actor, he offers a bill which should of itself attract a house crowded to its extreme capacity. Let our playgoers on this occasion forget less inviting entertainments and patronize genuine, unassisted and legitimate talent. Mr.
Adams appears tonight as Adrian de Tollyn, in the great tragedy of the "Hercule," written by John Corrad, of Philadelphia, expressly for Mr.
Edwin Forrest, and has since reverted to Mr.
Adams, who is now sole proprietor of the piece.
He will also assume the part of William, in "Black Eyed Susan." We shall say no more; but we hardly think that the taste of the theatrical portion of our community have become so vitiated as to allow this appeal of the worthy beneficiary to pass by unnoticed.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—Miss Vestral was again greeted with another large audience at this theatre last night. The "Duke of Mott" and the "Bengal Tiger" is the bill for this evening. At the close of the drama, Miss Vestral will sing the Marseilles hymn. As this evening is set apart for her benefit, we hope that the friends of the cause will be prompt to support her.

BRADY'S MINISTERS.—Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, these stars of the "burnt rock" profession were greeted with another large house last evening. They are a most excellent troupe, and deserve the patronage they are so liberally receiving at the hands of our citizens. The bill for this evening is a fine one, with an entire change of programme.
